Woodacre Offers Unusual Inducements to the Investor

We have laid special stress on Woodacre as a place for home and health, yet it offers wonderful investment opportunities. The Mailliard Ranch, of which Woodacre is a part, was for many years held as a private park. It was subdivided only a few months ago.

You Can Buy To-day at a Low Price

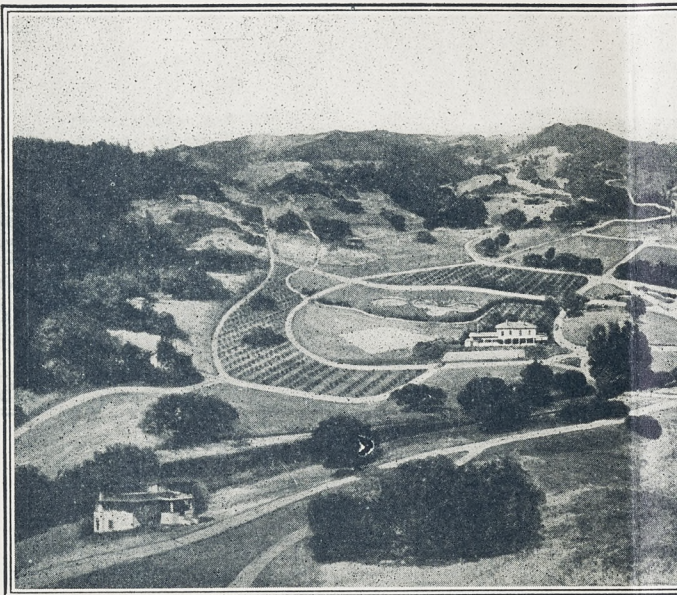

just as you could have bought in San Mateo, Burlingame, Piedmont, Berkeley, and Ross a few years ago. Nearly all of the people buying in Woodacre have bought with the intention of living there now, or at some future time. But they have been quick to see the delightful opportunity for money making. With the

at the foot of Van Ness Avenue, the completion of the Stockton Street tunnel, the electrifying of the railroad to Woodacre—these are a few of the things that will bring Woodacre as near Third and Market Streets, in time, as Berkeley now is, and will mean the rapid building up of the Valley, with a rise in property values.

Prices and Terms

The prices, as fixed by the owners, are based on a reasonable value of the property to-day. The terms are so easy that any one can afford to own a site in Woodacre. Fifteen per cent cash; balance in monthly payments, extending over a period of five years, if desired. Special discount for all cash.

Birdseye View of Woodacre

WOODACRE

Nowhere in the great West is there a spot more tempting to the nature lover—a place in which the beauties of New England's lakes and woods are combined with the charm of California's climate, than here in the

Valley of San Geronimo, Marin County

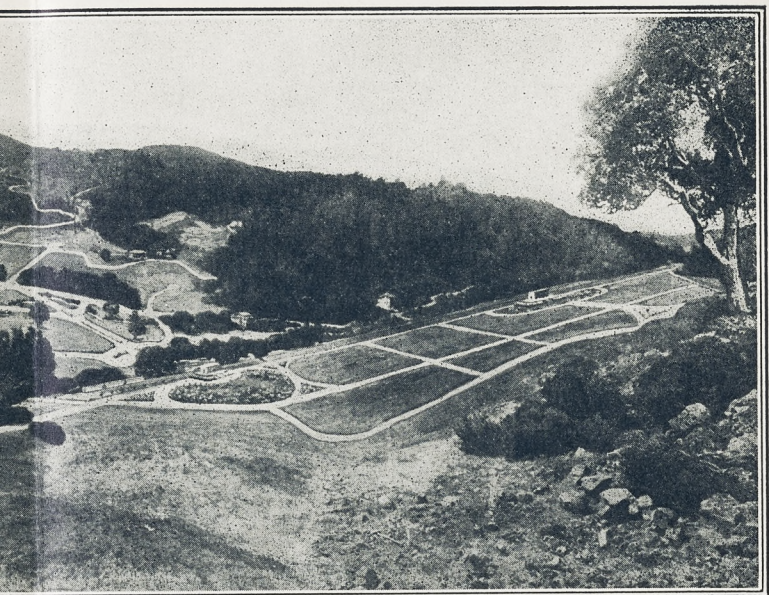

Here one can enjoy, every day in the year, the beauties of uncontaminated Nature in all her glorious splendor.

Here one may have the freedom enjoyed only by those fortunates who dwell among the vales and mountains covered with

Gorgeous Redwoods, Oaks, Madrones, Laurels and Pines

Here you will find a delightful nook practically unexplored—yet only sixty minutes from the hustle and bustle of the metropolis of the West—San Francisco.

The Paradise for All Lovers of Outdoor Sports

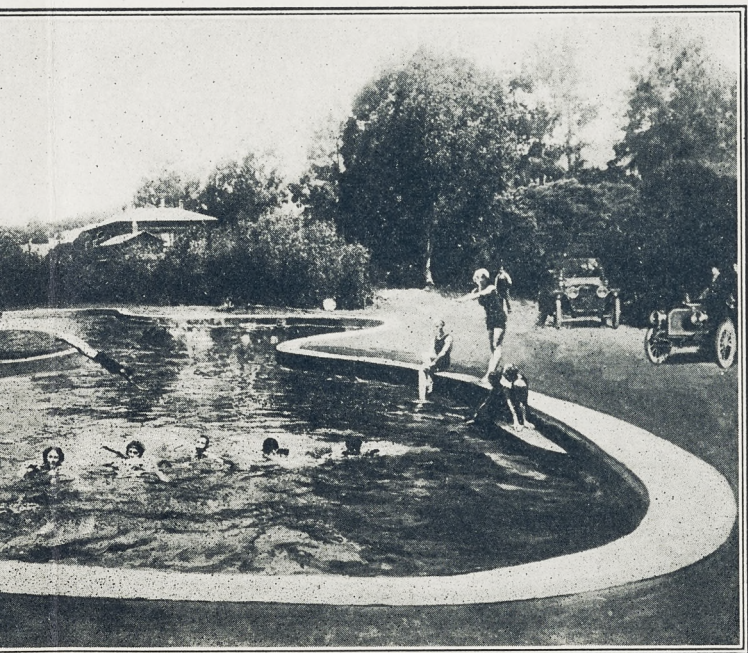

Those who love to be close to Nature may roam through the woods and meadows, over hill and glade at pleasure.

Here among the great redwoods and giant pines, deer and quail abound. These denisons of the woods are carefully protected by an efficient patrol. The Lagunitas and Carson creeks teem with trout. The swimming pools, lakes, and tennis courts are enjoyed practically every day in the year.

The Motor Enthusiast

will find no boulevards better as to grades and picturesque situations, than those now being built in Woodacre.

The work of the State Highway Commission will make the public roads in Marin County equal to any in the State. You can drive from Woodacre to the ferry every morning. Your car can meet you at the ferry or at any point on the electric road, and you can enjoy a beautiful ride home after the cares of business are over.

Improvements

Thousands of dollars have been spent to supplement nature, in making Woodacre an ideal home spot for those who love the open. All city conveniences—telephones, electric lights, mountain water piped to every tract—are available. Street work is being rapidly completed.

The Administration Lodge

on the premises is open for the use of Woodacre residents and their guests; swimming pools, tennis courts, and many other mediums for relaxation are waiting for you to use and enjoy.

Villa Sites or Country Estates

As you are not confined to the regulation subdivision lots, you may have a villa site of one-fourth to three acres in size. You may have country estates, from three acres to ten acres, or more. No sites have less than one hundred feet frontage. The lowest elevation is 425 feet.
